

Clover Kid Rules and Classes

1. Youth who have completed Kindergarten- 3rd grades by June 1, 2021 are eligible to exhibit at the Central Iowa Fair. There are no entry fees for Clover Kids and no premium paid. Participation ribbons will be awarded in these non-livestock classes.
2. Entries are limited to 2 per class/project area in the non-livestock classes. (Exception: Garden class – Clover Kids may enter up to 10 different vegetable entries with a maximum of 2 varieties of any vegetables. This corresponds with Horticulture Class 1551)
3. A special Clover Kid non-livestock entry form will be used to enter these classes. Deadline for entering exhibits is June 15, 2021. These exhibits do not qualify for State Fair consideration and Communications exhibitors cannot participate in State Fair events.
4. Clover Kids showing "non-livestock" exhibits (not including Communication & Clothing events) will participate in conference judging with a special Clover Kid judge in the Activity Building at the Central Iowa Fair on Tuesday, July 13, 2021. Each exhibitor needs to be able to identify his/her goal(s) relating to each exhibit, explain how he/she went about completing his/her exhibit, express what he/she has learned based upon work done on this exhibit. Written information is optional - the emphasis will be upon verbal communication with the judge.

Livestock Classes: There is no entry fee for Clover Kids. Participation ribbons will be awarded. All clover kid livestock entries must be ID by May 15th. Entries are due fairentry.com by June 15, 2021 at 11:59 PM. See species sections of the fair book for more information.
