

PRO-AG Outlook and Management Meetings

As harvest comes to a close, producers, ag lenders and suppliers are planning ahead for next year. Iowa State University Extension and Outreach offers valuable and updated information key to best-outcome 2019 operating decisions. The three-hour forum topics will include: grain price outlook and global factors to watch; livestock prices and margins; and farmland operating margins, outlook and trends.

The 2018 Pro Ag Outlook Forum will be offered in both Sheldon and Storm Lake. Choose your preferred location and time, and register accordingly.
