O’Brien County News

February 2019

StemFest registration is open for all 4-8th graders who would like to join the fun at Dordt College February 9.

The 2019 fair book will be coming out soon. Please look for new rules and changes that will be highlighted in the newsletter and online.

Summer camp registration will be out soon with great camps this year including: Science of BBQ, Cake decorating, sewing, Robotics, vet science and science of superpowers. Camps run from June until August in multiple locations in NW Iowa.

Clover Kids have mastered the sewing machine this last month and loved it. HMS pictured above with their drawstring bags.
Livestock

Livestock ID

All animals need to have a 4-H tag and ID entered into 4-H online by May 15. Tags can be purchased from the Extension office for $1.00.

YQCA

Codes have been sent out for those that need to take YQCA this year. If you have any questions about what you need to do before July 1 for YQCA let us know. If you need a code, request one from the Extension Office. Certificates will be required to enter for the 2019 fair.

Opportunities

Addison Brueggeman of the Caledonia Ramblers presented to her club on making a coffee mug design with nail polish. Great job!

Lindsey Einck of the Center Farmers presented to her club on making slime. She used a different recipe but it was a hit with her other club members and myself.
