Open to all 4th-8th grade 4-H’ers

Saturday, May 4th
9AM-12NOON
United Methodist Church, Harlan

Join Cassidy Robinson (former Shelby County 4-H’er) for a morning of hands-on learning and exploring what civic engagement & leadership means. She will share ideas on how you can become more involved in our community and become a more engaging leader.

4-H’ers will do research and learn about their community. They will work as a group to put together a video to enter as a group static exhibit for the Shelby County Fair.

Participants will also be joining in on the Clover Kids project day and sharing an activity with them.

Register by Thursday, May 2nd
mtaggs@iastate.edu or 755-3104