4-H Pledge

"I pledge
My HEAD to clearer thinking
My HEART to greater loyalty
My HANDS to larger service
My HEALTH to better living
For my club, my community, my country and my world."

4-H Motto

"To make the best better."

4-H is a community of young people across America who are learning leadership, citizenship and life skills.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) prohibits discrimination in all its programs and activities on the basis of race, color, national origin, gender, religion, age, disability, political beliefs, sexual orientation, and marital or family status. (Not all prohibited bases apply to all programs.) Many materials can be made available in alternative formats for ADA clients. To file a complaint of discrimination, write USDA, Office of Civil Rights, Room 326-W, Whitten Building, 14th and Independence Avenue, SW, Washington, DC 20250-9410 or call 202-720-5964.

What can you do in 4-H?

4-H gives YOU the chance to learn about NEW things like-writing stories, taking pictures, using computers, cooking, backpacking and camping; caring for pets, collecting rocks, or bugs. YOU can find out about bicycling, drama, fashion, weather, model rockets, bee-keeping, arranging flowers, putting together engines, drawing and painting; growing vegetables and herbs, making speeches, becoming a leader and a WHOLE LOT MORE!!

4-H-A FAMILY AFFAIR

4-H encourages family involvement whenever it is practical and possible. What can the 4-H program do for families?

- * Educate the whole family.
- * Help family members communicate better as they solve problems by working together toward common goals.
- * Help families develop unity as they work toward project goals.
- * Provide opportunities to discuss goal-setting, decision-making, and service to others.
- * Promote family activities such as camping, exchange trips, and potluck dinners.
- * Provide settings in which family members can share rewards for success and be encouraged during times of disappointment.

Who Can Join?

Anyone in the grades 4-12 who are willing to:

- * Discover their hidden talents.
- * Achieve self-confidence.
- * Gain new knowledge.
- * Take pride in their accomplishments.
- * Develop acceptance of others.
- * Become a valuable part of their community.
