

4-H GROWS HERE

Interest

Warren County 4-H provides a variety of unique ways to volunteer. Share your passion of 4-H with youth in the community and watch them grow and gain lifelong skills. Becoming a club leader is one way to participate, but there are other ways to get involved such as workshops, judging, and committees.

Contact the Extension Office for current volunteer opportunities.

Resources

Working with youth requires a certain level of conduct. We ask that our volunteers uphold the code of conduct set by Iowa 4-H and enforced by Warren County Extension and 4-H. To ensure you are the correct applicant for the position we ask you to have two people give a reference.

Please review the Code of Conduct and have two references fill out this Reference Form.

Background Screening

In order to volunteer with Iowa 4-H we are required to preform a background screening.

Please complete the Volunteer Background Screening Authorization Form and the Volunteer Background Screening Disclosure.

Being a Volunteer

4-H Online

You will need to create a profile. Reference this 4-H Online Help Guide. This will be the platform to access club information.

New Volunteer Training

Every new volunteer is required to attend this training. Please contact Warren County Extension to find out when the next class is offered.

Annual Leaders Training

Club leaders are required to complete this training every year. An invite will be sent out for a that is typically offered early spring.

Resources

Warren County 4-H has curriculum resources available for club leaders to use upon request.

Please review and complete these forms, then return them to the Warren County Extension Office.
