About Woodbury County 4-H

4-H has been a part of Iowa for over 100 years, providing youth with education, life skills and a fun club environment with friends. 4-H programming has grown to cover subjects from the traditional areas of livestock, leadership and family sciences to new educational opportunities in STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Math), photography, robotics, shooting sports, performing and more.

Woodbury County 4-H opportunities include:

- Project workshops
- 4-H awards
- The Woodbury County Fair and Iowa State Fair
- Lego League robotics competitions
- Leadership opportunities
- Community service experiences
- Dog obedience workshops
- Special events and camps
- Club officer training
- County youth council
- College scholarships
- State Conference
- Citizenship Washington Focus trip

Enrollment Cost

4-H enrollment (grades 4-12):
$10 per child

Clover Kids enrollment (grades K-3):
$5 per child

After May 1, 2019, price increases to $35 for 4-H'ers, Clover Kids remain at $5.

Starting a Club

Do you have a special skill that you could share with 4-H youth? We are always on the lookout for dedicated 4-H leaders to start new interest clubs in different subject areas! Please contact Lujean Faber at (712) 276-2157 or faber@iastate.edu for more information.
